6. Criminal Convictions and Cautions

Due to working with vulnerable adults all posts are subject to Disclosure and Barring Service checks. A caution or conviction does not necessarily mean you will not be considered for employment. Each case is considered on its merits. This post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act of 1974. This means that applicants are not entitled to withhold details of cautions or convictions (including those considered spent) unless the caution or conviction is "protected". "protected cautions" and "protected convictions" are defined in the The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (Amendment) Order 2013 and are not subject to disclosure to employers, and cannot be taken into account. Guidance on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found on the Disclosure and Barring Service website.

Other than a "protected caution" or "protected conviction", have you ever been convicted of a criminal offence, received a caution, or awaiting prosecution?

Yes ☐ No ☐

If YES, details will be required from you in strict confidence on a separate sheet and they will not necessarily debar you from employment within Age UK Sunderland.
