

Since the 17th May we have been opening up more but still with caution. As the Government website states:

Coronavirus restrictions remain in place across the country, including for people who have been vaccinated.

You can see the full document here: <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/covid-19-coronavirus-restrictions-what-you-can-and-cannot-do>

Age UK Stockport are also continuing to open up and staff are looking forward to returning more services in this month. See our June newsletter (link on the website front page) for more information.
