Sharing Time

Support is in the form of regular contact from a fully trained volunteer whose aim is to share their time, friendship and help. Contact is usually once a week either by a visit to your home or a telephone call.

A volunteer can offer:

- Conversation - listening and talking.
- Sharing reminiscence - looking at photos.
- Play board & card games, share crosswords & puzzles.
- Read post, help with correspondence and make phone calls.
- Provide a link to other services and support.

A volunteer cannot:

Do housework, shopping or gardening, deal with money or bills or provide any personal care.

What to expect from us:

- A weekly home visit, or telephone call.
- Volunteers who are carefully screened.
- The same volunteer to visit you.
- Personal information to be kept in confidence.
- To be respected and valued as an individual.
- Contact with a named Age UK employee regarding the Sharing Time service.

What we expect from you:

- Notify us of any changes to your circumstances and if you can't keep arrangements made with your volunteer
- Let us have your comments on the service.
- Provide a smoke free environment during visits.
- Refrain from offering money and gifts exceeding £10.00 per year to the volunteer.
