Can you help us?

As an independent charity responsible for raising our own funds, we need financial support to help us continue our work with older people in Camden.

You can help us by:

- Making a one-off donation
- Making a regular donation
- Leaving us a gift in your will
- Organising or participating in a fundraising event

Contact our team on fundraising@ageukcamden.org.uk for more information.

Age UK Camden is committed to partnership working. We support other voluntary organisations to promote good practice and ensure that services meet the needs of older people.

Your personal information matters to us

Your privacy
We work within the principles of the UK General Data Protection Act to make sure any personal information we hold (such as your name, contact details, etc) is processed lawfully.

In particular, we won't hold more information than we need and we keep it:

- up to date
- secure
- only for as long as necessary

Information no longer needed, will be confidentially and securely destroyed.

In certain circumstances Age UK Camden will share your information with statutory services if there is a safeguarding risk, for example if we are concerned about your welfare and safety.

Your rights

If we hold your personal information, you have the right to:

- know what we hold and who it is shared with
- correct any inaccuracies
- object to, or restrict, how it is being used
- be 'forgotten' by having your information removed

If you want to exercise your rights about personal information, please speak with one of our managers.

For more information

If you would like more information about how we use your personal information, the full Privacy Policy and relevant service documents are available on our website: www.ageuk.org.uk/camden/privacy-policy/

Paper copies can be requested by email or telephone. If you have any questions about this privacy notice, please contact the appointed Data Controllers.

In signing this agreement, I consent to Age UK Camden holding personal information about me for the purposes of providing with services and information that relate to my involvement with AUC.
