Tap on' settings' which is the grey box with the cog inside.

Tap on 'display and brightness'.

Tap on 'text size'.

Apps that support Dynamic Type will adjust to your preferred reading size below.

Move the white dot along the bottom of the screen to make your text bigger - you can do this by holding onto the white dot and dragging it along the scale.

The writing at the top of the screen will now change when you move it. Use this as a guide of how large you would like to have it.

If you are still having troubles reading the text, go back to settings and tap on 'accessibility'.

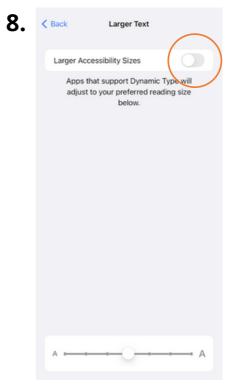

Now tap on 'display & text size'.

Classic Invert reverses the colours of the display.

Now tap on 'larger text'.

Tap the switch next to 'larger accessibility sizes' at the top.

Next move the white dot along the bottom of your screen by dragging it from left to right to see what text size suits you.

Once you've done this, you can exit out of settings.
