A SMALL INVESTMENT NOW CAN MEAN PEACE OF MIND FOR THE FUTURE

Leave a Gift to Cornwall is helping you to get this important piece of admin off your 'to do' list by offering Free Wills.

We are a group of charities who all work in Cornwall to make a difference to people's lives and the Duchy we live in. We have formed Leave A Gift To Cornwall so we can provide more information on how to remember your favourite charity in your Will.

We have engaged with a firm of Solicitors : McClures, a national specialist in Will writing and other legal services.

McClures are now offering their legal services from newly opened offices in Truro.

WHAT WE ARE OFFERING

FREE WILLS

If you do not currently have a Will you can have one drawn up for free or for a small charitable donation to one of our member charities.

FREE WILL REVIEW

If you already have a Will in place, you are part of a small percentage who do. Many people's circumstances change over the years, for example: children, grandchildren or divorce. It is advised that you should get your Will reviewed regularly, to ensure it is always kept up to date and thereby reflects your current wishes.

ONCE I'VE GONE

Once I've gone is a unique pre-planning website designed to make life easier for family members left behind when a loved one dies. It includes a secure vault to hold important documents, treasured memories and pictures for family members to access for years to come.

www.onceivegone.com

For any of these services a solicitor would usually charge in excess of £150.

These services are free of charge for those referred by a member charity of Leave a Gift to Cornwall.

In return we ask for a nominal charitable donation to the Leave A Gift member charity of your choice or you can choose to give later within your new Will.

your community ”
