

Job Description

This job description is not exhaustive and is intended only as a guide to the range of activities associated with the post.

JOB TITLE:	Assistant Charity Shop Manager - Alfreton £12.21 per hour – 13 hours per week (alternate weekends and holiday cover)
RESPONSIBLE FOR:	Retail Income Generation
RESPONSIBLE TO:	Retail Manager Chief Executive Finance and Income Generation Programme Board
JOB PURPOSE:	To support AUKDD independent shops in Derbyshire maximising income generation to generate unrestricted income for our charitable services.

The Retail Division: The charity runs 11 independent charity shops established to generate income to support our charitable activities. Our established shops are located in the County in Clay Cross, Wirksworth, Duffield and Heanor, Alfreton, Bakewell, Belper and Matlock and in the city in Alvaston and Derwent. We have an online sales shop in Ebay. To provide support to our shops we have a large warehouse and stock van. The warehouse sorts and stores donations and handles reclaim stock and recycling as well as providing shops with sales resources but all shops handle incoming donations, sort and store stock. Each shop and the warehouse has a part-time manager and a team of volunteers to fulfil a staffing rota, some shops have an Assistant. The established shops are all decorated and presented in a corporate style using the bright Age UK colour palette. Our concept shop in Belper has a different look and feel.

In recent years we have closed shops affected by local trading conditions but also added to our portfolio and we are keen to establish new shops, or retail businesses, in other communities in Derbyshire and Derby City. There is potential to try new styles of retail shops and to further develop online sales. The shops are primarily a source of charitable income but they are also an opportunity to reduce waste, re-use and recycle supporting our environmental policy. The shops are our window to the world, providing in-reach to local communities. The shops each have an information hub, can promote local services and events and each year they support our influencing campaigns with shop-window displays.

The Role:

- The Assistant Manager will need to be proficient in charity retail and, with appropriate induction and training, be able to fulfil the role of Charity Shop Manager as required.
- The Assistant Manager is an active member of the retail team working at the direction of the Retail Manager and working with shop managers and volunteers to demonstrate best practice.
