The Good Neighbour Scheme

The Good Neighbour Scheme

Having someone to talk to on a regular basis can make a real difference, particularly if you are used to sharing your home and time with others. Our Good Neighbour Scheme offers support to people who are housebound, or less mobile and who live alone. Our volunteer can visit you in your own home, or make regular telephone contact through our telephone buddy service.

We provide support in a number of ways:

- A sympathetic ear
- Confidential support
- Regular contact
- Easy conversation
- Keeping you in touch

How does the scheme work?

If you find it difficult to get out and about, a friendly volunteer will visit you at home, or call you, to have a chat to see how you are getting on.

You can choose to receive a weekly visit, or telephone call at a pre-arranged time, by one of our friendly, trained and supported volunteers.

Who qualifies for the Good Neighbour Scheme?

We offer a free service to those who are lonely, receive few or no visitors, or you are only able to get out and about with the support of others. You must also be aged 60 or over and living within the Dudley Borough.

You could be:

- Living alone
- Living away from family
- Recently bereaved
- Receive few visitors
- Isolated from your community due to health problems
- Assessed as benefiting from the service
