

Homeshare Gloucestershire Opportunities

Opportunity 1 - Painswick, GL6

- 10 hours per week providing some practical support and companionship
- Double bedroom available
- Excellent internet connectivity
- Village location
- Female Sharer required
- Must be a car owner

£150 a
month

The Opportunity

To share a home with a friendly, chatty and very creative older lady. The Sharer would ideally be a mature, friendly, positive and tidy woman with an interest in arts, who would enjoy cooking some meals and helping out with practical tasks around the house. A driver and car owner is a must. The Sharer would be expected to be in the property a minimum of three evenings per week as well as sleeping in the property every night. You'd have one day 'off' per week, as well as being able to go away every third weekend (if you wish). You can take up to five weeks of holiday/year (pro-rata).

The House

A house with beautiful views over the hills, within a short walking distance to the centre of Painswick. Stroud and Gloucester are only a 10-15 minutes' drive away. A double bedroom with its own bathroom is available for the right person, with shared use of the lounge, kitchen, conservatory and garden. There is excellent internet connectivity.

The Homeshare Agreement

You would pay a monthly facilitation fee to Homeshare Gloucestershire for our matching and ongoing monitoring service. You do not pay any rent to the Householder, but will be required to make a small monthly contribution to council tax (25%) and household bills.

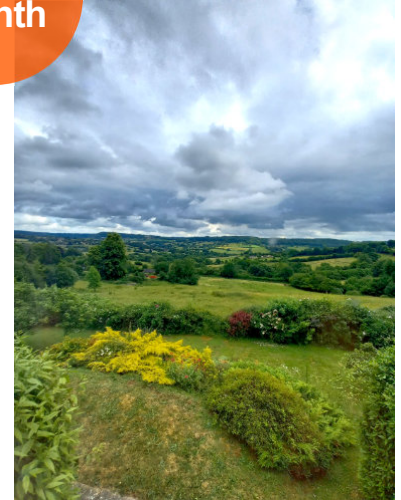

As part of this low cost living arrangement, you would give only 10 hours of your time each week in lieu of rent. On an average week, you'd spend the 10 hours offering practical help around the house, cooking, sharing meals, general company. The lady and her family are looking for the reassurance of having someone at home overnight.

No personal care needed or allowed.

Opportunity 2 - Edge, GL6

- En-suite bedsit with separate entrance
- Village location
- 5 hours per week providing some practical support and companionship
- Car owner is a must

£200 a month

The Opportunity

To share a home with a friendly and very independent older lady, who would welcome the presence of another person in her home. The Sharer would ideally be an open, friendly, easy going, tidy person who would enjoy the occasional chat over a cuppa. A driver and car owner is a must due to the rural location. This would suit a person who works locally or part-time, and has some flexibility in their schedule to help the Householder get to medical appointments (plenty of notice will be given) and do the weekly food shop. The Sharer would be expected to be in the property a minimum of three evenings per week as well as sleeping in the property every night. You'd have one day 'off' per week, as well as being able to go away most weekends (if you wish). You can take up to five weeks of holiday/year (pro-rata).

The House

A large bungalow with spectacular views over Painswick Valley, located in Edge – a friendly village on the A4173, between Gloucester and Stroud. A bedsit with own bathroom and separate entrance, and shared use of lounge and the garden is available for the right person. Free parking available.

The Homeshare Agreement

You would pay a monthly facilitation fee to Homeshare Gloucestershire for our matching and ongoing monitoring service. You do not pay any rent to the Householder, but will be required to make a small monthly contribution to council tax (25%) and household bills – we estimate this may be around £100/month.

As part of this low cost living arrangement, you would give only five hours of your time each week in lieu of rent. On an average week, you'd spend the five hours offering practical help around the house and general companionship.

No personal care needed or allowed.

Opportunity 3 - Cheltenham, GL52

£150 a
month

- 10 hours per week providing some practical tasks, companionship and light gardening
- Large double bedroom available
- Would suit a mature Christian woman Sharer
- Driver car owner preferred

The Opportunity

To share a home with a friendly, sociable and kind older woman. Faith is very important to her; she enjoys arts & crafts, as well as being a self-professed bookworm. The ideal Sharer would be a mature Christian woman, fairly relaxed and easy going, with an interest in arts and crafts.

A driver/car owner would be a bonus, but is not a must. The Sharer would be expected to be in the property a minimum of three evenings per week as well as sleeping in the property every night. You'd have one day 'off' per week, as well as being able to go away every third weekend (if you wish). You can take up to five weeks of holiday/year (pro-rata).

The House

A busy and well used home in Bishops Cleeve, Cheltenham. A large bedroom with plenty of storage is available for the right person, with shared use of the bathroom, lounge, kitchen, and garden.

The Homeshare Agreement

You would pay a monthly facilitation fee to Homeshare Gloucestershire for our matching and ongoing monitoring service. You do not pay any rent to the Householder, but will be required to make a small monthly contribution to council tax (25%) and household bills.

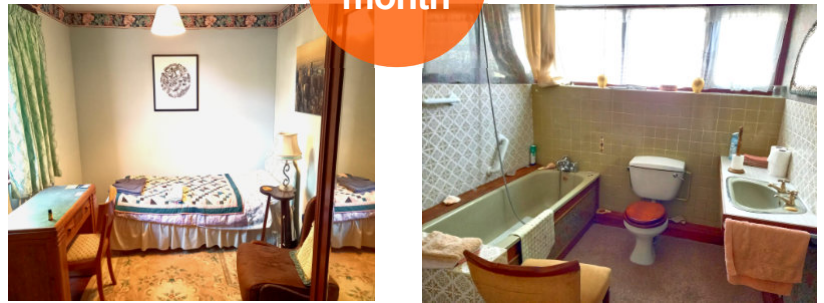

As part of this low cost living arrangement, you would give only 10 hours of your time each week in lieu of rent. On an average week, you'd spend the 10 hours offering practical help around the house, general company and the occasional lift to the church (if you drive). The Householder and her family are looking for the reassurance of having someone at home overnight.

No personal care needed or allowed.

Opportunity 4 - Edge, GL6

- Double bedroom with own bathroom
- Village location
- 5 hours per week providing some practical support and companionship
- Car owner is a must
- Female Sharer required

£200 a month

The Opportunity

To share a home with a friendly and very independent older lady, who would welcome the presence of another person in her home. The Sharer would ideally be an open, friendly, easy going, flexible, tidy person who would enjoy the occasional chat over a cuppa. A driver and car owner is a must due to the rural location. The Sharer would be expected to be in the property a minimum of three evenings per week as well as sleeping in the property every night. You'd have one day 'off' per week, as well as being able to go away most weekends (if you wish). You can take up to five weeks of holiday/year (pro-rata).

The Home

A large bungalow with its own garden, located in Edge – a friendly village on the A4173, between Gloucester and Stroud. A large bedroom with plenty of storage is available for the right person, with almost single use of the bathroom, and shared use of the lounge, kitchen, and garden. Free parking available.

The Homeshare Agreement

You would pay a monthly facilitation fee to Homeshare Gloucestershire for our matching and ongoing monitoring service. You do not pay any rent to the Householder, but will be required to make a small monthly contribution to council tax (25%) and household bills – we estimate this may be around £100/month.

As part of this low cost living arrangement, you would give only five hours of your time each week in lieu of rent. On an average week, you'd spend the five hours offering practical help around the house and general companionship.

This is a position advertised on behalf of the Householder. We carry out reference checks and an enhanced DBS check prior to introducing you to the Householder.

No personal care needed or allowed.