Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

The role of Trustee will have access to children or vulnerable adults or their records; we will require an enhanced disclosure from the Criminal Records Bureau and need to have information from you regarding any previous, existing or pending convictions or cautions. You are not entitled to withhold information even if your conviction, normally be considered 'spent'.

1. Have you ever been cautioned or convicted of a criminal offence?
2. Have you ever been disqualified from working with children or vulnerable adults?

If you do not disclose any criminal convictions or caution, including those 'spent', it could result in withdrawal of the offer or dismissal from your role.
