Age UK Lincoln & South Lincolnshire (“AUKLSL”) takes privacy very seriously. For information on how we keep your personal information safe and how to exercise your rights, please see our Privacy Statement. This can be found on our website, or we can provide a paper copy to you upon request. You can withdraw or change the consent you give to process your personal information at any time by writing to DPO@ageuklsi.org.

The Compassionate Pen Pals Project

AUKLSL is working in partnership with Compassionate Minster, a body comprising students of Lincoln Minster School (“LMS”) working with Compassionate Lincoln to make our community a better place. Compassionate Minster hold social action events to help people in need and helping to care for people in their communities.

Reasons for processing

The information you provide to us will be used to enrol you on the Compassionate Minster Pen Pals Project. It will also be used by LMS, and shared with selected students, to enable them to engage with the project and correspond with you. By signing this form, you are agreeing to us providing LMS with your personal information (including your name, address, email address and other contact details) for this purpose. We are not responsible for how LMS process your personal information, but if you want to know more about this, LMS can be contacted by emailing Jenny Muir - Jenny.Muir@lincolnminsterschool.co.uk or calling 07538088574

OPTIONAL - We would also like to contact you about future events, but you do not have to agree to this

We would like to contact you to provide details about future events and news that may be of interest to you, such as next year’s Big Knit Project. Don’t worry: we won’t contact you very often and your personal information will be held securely at all times and won’t be shared with third parties. You can opt out at any time. For more information about how to opt out, please see our Privacy Policy.
