

Charity Shop Volunteer

Are you looking to gain new skills and experience? Ready to get out and make some new friends? We are inviting people to join our team of Charity Shop Volunteers in Boston.

Key Tasks

To help Age UK Lincoln & South Lincolnshire to fundraise via their charity shop, these funds will help to ensure the continuation of vital services for older people in the Lincoln and South Lincolnshire area.

This role has a huge variety of tasks, our volunteers all work together as part of a team. This role will suit someone who enjoys being in a team.

- Working on the till processing sales and returns
- Stock processing & preparation including sorting, steaming and pricing
- Visual merchandising - Creating stylish windows and displays
- Replenishing stock on the shop floor

Important Considerations

Age UK Lincoln and South Lincolnshire are able to support with out of pocket expenses such as bus fares, providing receipts are submitted.

Skills required

- Good oral and communication skills
- Reliability and a sense of humour.
- To be willing to work to guidelines and policies on Health & Safety, confidentiality equal opportunities and Covid 19 guidelines.
- Understanding the need for confidentiality.
- An ability to demonstrate patience and sensibility
- Excellent customer service skills
- Team-working skills
- Good timekeeping
- Friendly, engaging, polite & helpful
- Reliability and enthusiasm is more important than experience.

Time Commitment

- ♦ Minimum of one shift a week (four hours) between Monday to Saturday 9am -4pm
- ♦ Volunteers do need to be able to commit to a regular shift pattern
