Whether you are a social or private renter, it's important to know your rights and responsibilities as a tenant. Good Grief Festival,

We're delighted to share that a brand new, free online Good Grief Festival is coming this April.

This special weekend will explore grief, resilience and hope — because when life falls apart, many of us ask the same questions: What helps? What gets in the way? And how do we keep going?

From Friday 17th to Sunday 19th April, we'll bring together a remarkable group of speakers for thoughtful, honest conversations about living with loss. Guests include leading grief experts Julia Samuel MBE and David Kessler, former Children's Laureate Joseph Coelho OBE, resilience researcher Dr Lucy Hone, neuroscientist Professor Mary-Frances O'Connor, trauma specialist Dr Frank Anderson, and many others who combine professional expertise with personal experience.

Across the weekend we'll explore topics such as:

Making Norfolk a great place to grow older

- the science of resilience
- the stories and rituals that help us through loss
- trauma and intergenerational grief
- the role of nature and landscape in healing
- life-limiting illness

Most events will take place online, so you can join us from anywhere. We're also excited to feature a special in-person performance and book signing in Birmingham – more details below.

Registration is now open and we would love you to join us.

FIND OUT MORE

All live online events are free, so that as many people as possible can take part. Recordings will also be available afterwards for a small fee to help cover festival costs – more information coming soon.

We're also pleased to share that Good Grief Festival Founding Director, Professor Lucy Selman, will give a public lecture in Bristol on Tuesday 24th March at 5.30pm. Lucy will reflect on her life and career so far — and why bringing often hidden experiences into public conversation matters.

Everyone is welcome to attend in person and the lecture will also be live-streamed.

FIND OUT MORE

If you've got questions or thoughts you'd like to share, email us at hello@goodgrieffest.com – we always love hearing from you.

Let's talk about death and dying - discover how to be a Compassionate Friend...

You can be a Compassionate Friend?

We all know people who are going through a difficult time due to ill-health, care-giving, loss or bereavement. We often want to offer support, but don't always have the words or know how we can help. Becoming a compassionate friend will help to build the skills and confidence needed.

Our workshops cover:

- Understanding what a compassionate community is
- Dispelling myths and taboos about death and dying
- Communication skills and how to use them effectively
- Practical ways you can support or the offer of a friendly ear to make a difference

Support at Stalham Baptist Church

Stalham Baptist Church has opened a Memories café in its refurbished School Room.

It is open on the last Monday of the month 10am to 12 Noon.

It aims to provide a welcoming social space where people with memory loss, and their carers, can gather to have a cuppa, enjoy a range of activities, make new friends and enhance their quality of life.

This provides an opportunity to meet others who face similar problems. Activities include games, music, jigsaws, painting, knitting, and baking. There are also “memory books” which can prompt those attending to reminisce.

Other groups at the Church include an over 55's group, a bereavement support group and warm space.

Hi Ladies

The Horning and District Ladies Lunch Club,

Is a great way to meet new people, and, we also enjoy a delicious 2 course meal, followed by tea or coffee.

There is also different guest speaker every month.

As the names suggests, it is a daytime gathering, so, the added bonus, is that you will be home before it starts getting dark.

We meet at the Old Rectory Hotel in Crostwick, on the 4th Tuesday of every month.

For more information, please contact Tricia Elson on, 07931 301606, or email her at, ladieslunchclub@btinternet.com

We look forward to welcoming you.

The Bridge For Heroes

The Bridge for Heroes – a small charity with a big heart, supporting the Armed Forces community of West Norfolk and beyond.

We run a Drop-In centre on South Clough Lane, King's Lynn, and our doors are open from 10am until 4pm Monday to Friday, and from 10am until 2pm on Saturdays. We provide hot and cold drinks, home-cooked lunches, with a warm welcome and friendly conversation.

If you are a veteran or serving member of HM Forces, full-time or reserve, you are welcome to access our services. If you are the spouse, widow/er, parent, child or carer of someone who has served or is serving, we are here for you too. And we don't want to forget families separated through divorce or relationship breakdown. We do everything we can to assess need on a case-by-case basis, and it all starts with a brew and a chat!

NEW

GROUPS LAUNCHING SOON

We are thrilled to share news that we are currently developing a new resource for our website.

The Good Grief Trust is proud to be the UK's bereavement network, bringing together vital resources under one umbrella, for those who are bereaved, under any circumstance.

Help and Hope in One Place

This new map will include locations across the UK where you will be able to find others in your local community, to go for a walk and talk out in nature, and hopefully forge new friendships.

We know that being outdoors creates calm, while walking with friends opens space for support. Physical activity reduces stress and boosts our endorphins and a cup of coffee and cake at the end is always a welcome treat!

We would love to hear from you, if you run a Walk and Talk Group/event, anywhere in the UK.

Please get in touch soon and we will include your group on our new map
