Arts For Health

An Afternoon of ( very) old radio

Are you sitting comfortably? Then we'll begin.

This is London calling...Written and performed by comedian, broadcast historian and British Comedy Award-winning writer (Miranda, Not Going Out) Paul Kerensa, this one-man show informs, educates and entertains about the origin story of the BBC, radio and life as we know it.

Journey back to the 1920s with tales, clips and re-enactments of landmark moments: the first BBC broadcast, the first children's show, drama, sports commentary and much more.

With genuine 'cat's whisker' radio set, gramophone player and 1923 Radio Times, this 'stand-up history' show brings back to life forgotten pioneers – from Britain's first DJ Gertrude Donisthorpe (spinning discs in a field during WWI), to the BBC's first children's character. Hear the BBC's first song, the influential first outside broadcast and the bawdy tale of the launch of Savoy Hill. All wrapped in a delightfully fun tale - with insights of Paul's present-day BBC career.

Community Culture Club

( starting November ,but open to sign up now)

What is it?

Community Culture Club is a museum creative wellbeing programme for older adults (65+) including:

People living with dementia

Carers

People with long-term health conditions

People who are lonely or socially isolated

It's based at the Museum of Norwich at the Bridewell, right in the heart of the Norwich Lanes.

It is completely free to be a part of. It's a fixed-term programme of ten sessions and runs once a year, from November – February. We have worked with four cohorts of participants to-date. Each group size is capped at eight participants, to ensure a supportive staff: participant ratio.

What do you do?

Each of the ten sessions is themed around an object or objects in the museum's collections. We will do different creative activities together, inspired by the theme that week.

This could include activities like:

Painting

Clay work

Tasting foods

Handling historical objects

You do not need any past creative experience or historical knowledge. We will provide all the materials needed for the activities.

There's also plenty of time to chat with other people in the group, to get to know each other.

Tea, coffee, fruit, and biscuits are provided at each session. We need to fuel our creativity!

“It's an opportunity for older people to re-discover their creative side, learn about the museum and the history of Norwich, and meet new people” – Community Culture Club participant

How do I join?

Our next group will run November 2025 – January 2026. We will open registration for participants in August 2025.

If you'd like to express your interest for the next cohort:

Email: bridewellmuseum@norfolk.gov.uk

Your name

The Bridge For Heroes

The Bridge for Heroes – a small charity with a big heart, supporting the Armed Forces community of West Norfolk and beyond.

We run a Drop-In centre on South Clough Lane, King's Lynn, and our doors are open from 10am until 4pm Monday to Friday, and from 10am until 2pm on Saturdays. We provide hot and cold drinks, home-cooked lunches, with a warm welcome and friendly conversation.

If you are a veteran or serving member of HM Forces, full-time or reserve, you are welcome to access our services. If you are the spouse, widow/er, parent, child or carer of someone who has served or is serving, we are here for you too. And we don't want to forget families separated through divorce or relationship breakdown. We do everything we can to assess need on a case-by-case basis, and it all starts with a brew and a chat!

Find us at 52A South Clough Lane, King's Lynn PE30 1SE and online at www.thebridgeforheroes.org.
