Our history

- 1942 We start life as a branch of the National Older Person's Welfare Committee
- 2000 The Age Concern Federation is founded
- 2009 Age Concern and Help the Aged merge to form Age UK
- 2010 We join the Age UK brand and become a local Brand Partner

- 2022 Age UK Notts celebrate our 80th birthday
- 2023 The charity expands some of its services to people of all ages
- 2026 Our charity continues to grow

Who are we?

We're the largest, local, independent charity supporting older or vulnerable people in Nottingham and Nottinghamshire. We share the Age UK brand and have a national body who lead on research and policy work, but we are wholly independent. All our work is delivered locally and benefits local people and communities.

Age UK Nottingham & Nottinghamshire provide a range of services which enhance the quality of life of local older or vulnerable people. Despite our name, many of our services aren't limited to older people.
