Shotover View Memory Group (Oxford) Christmas Party
(Tuesday 17th December 2019)

The Shotover View Memory Group offers a place for people with dementia (PWD), their family and carers to meet and socialise.

The group meets fortnightly at Shotover View at a venue provided free by the Order of St Johns Care Trust.

On Tuesday 17th December the memory group will be holding their 4th annual Christmas Party with a variety of festive activities taking place.

Dementia Oxfordshire partners will be attending, including the Oxfordshire Playhouse, who offer free shows for PWD, Oxfordshire Aunts who provide a live in support service and EI-Well who offer 'At Home', support service through their team of physiotherapists, occupational therapists and dietitians. Radio Oxfordshire are attending and will be interviewing members and partners.

Peter Johnson, Head of Dementia Oxfordshire says "The Shotover View Memory Group is a popular group that provides an opportunity for PWD to meet and socialise and learn more about the support that is available to them, I would like to say thank you to our partners whose support is key to the groups success, and also to all the Dementia Oxfordshire staff in the city whose work makes all this possible".

About Dementia Oxfordshire

Dementia Oxfordshire is delivered in partnership by Age UK Oxfordshire, YoungDementia and Guideposts Trust. It is funded by Oxfordshire County Council and Oxfordshire Clinical Commissioning Group. Dementia Oxfordshire aims to provide a single point of contact for people after they, or a family member, receive a diagnosis of dementia. The service provides support from the point of diagnosis until either end of life or a move into residential care. Dementia Oxfordshire acts as an information hub on Dementia Issues for the county, maintaining a website and working to raise awareness.
