

Low cost accommodation in Oxfordshire in return for a helping hand

Homeshare Oxford carefully matches older people with a spare room and who need practical help, companionship, or a reassuring presence in the home with a person looking for low-cost accommodation.

In return for accommodation, the sharer gives up to 10 hours of help / companionship per week, pays a fee £200 per month to Homeshare Oxford, plus a contribution to the Householder towards household costs.

STOP PRESS  New accommodation in Oxford (soon be advertised) in OX4 (Iffley Fields and Donnington) and OX2 (Banbury Road, north of the ringroad)

Oxford, Risinghurst home OX3 (Ref 026)

Would you like to live in Risinghurst, a convenient location near ring road, transport and hospitals?

The homeowner is involved in the peace movement and enjoys classical music. She is active, independent, interested in current affairs and family living close by.

The homeowner would enjoy sharing company and some meals from time to time. Help with IT and some light housework would also be welcome. Particularly suitable for an independent person who shares similar interests and is happy to live in a vegetarian home.

Central Witney home OX28 (Ref 020)

Would you like to share the home of a friendly, independent person who is interested in art, gardening, education, theatre and cinema? She is actively involved with voluntary work with refugees and the with peace movement.

This would suit a friendly, helpful person who would enjoy sharing company and some meals together. Someone who would help with things such as, moving the odd box or item of furniture and putting out the rubbish. A driver would be ideal for occasional lifts (could use Householder's car).

Dorchester-on-Thames cottage, OX10 (Ref 022)

Would you like to share a comfortable home in Dorchester-on-Thames, eight miles south of Oxford and close to shops, transport and the beautiful Oxfordshire countryside.

The homeowner is a friendly, sociable and active person. She lives independently with some memory impairment. She is interested current affairs, human rights, Africa and is actively involved in the church. This would suit a friendly and kind person who has some evenings free to share mealtimes and could help with day to day household tasks.

Sutton Courtenay home, OX14 (Ref 023)

There is an opportunity to share a comfortable and spacious home in the pretty village of Sutton Courtenay, three miles south of Abingdon and a mile from Culham.

This gentle homeowner enjoys a peaceful home, is interested in classical music and is involved in the local church. She is living independently with mild dementia and has family living fairly close by.

The homeowner would like some companionship and to share meals from time to time. A car driver, able to help with lifts to shops and appointments, would be ideal.

This would suit an independent and understanding person.

Goring-on-Thames cottage, OX10 (Ref 024)

There is an opportunity to share a spacious cottage in Goring-on-Thames, six miles from Wallingford and 13 minutes by train to Reading. The area is close to the beautiful Ridgeway and Chilterns.

The homeowner is a friendly and active person. She has an interest in music, sewing and local church activities. She lives independently and would enjoy having someone to provide a reassuring presence especially at night.

This would suit a friendly and kind person who has some free times in the evenings and weekends to share company and who would enjoy a small dog being around.

Coming up soon: Homes in Cumnor, Witney, Wheatley, Summertown

Contact Homeshare Oxford

Please see our webpage and Information for Sharers for more details.

You can request an application form by using the online form on our webpage

www.homeshareoxford.org.uk or email homeshare@ageukoxfordshire.org.uk

February 2019