

Luke Clements Carers Rights and 2014 Act

You are invited to an event with Luke Clements, a leading specialist in carers' rights.

An update of the important legal and policy rights & developments concerning carers' social care rights.

If you are looking after a relative or friend in an unpaid capacity, this event will increase awareness of your rights.

Tuesday 11th September 2018

Registration from 10.00am

10.30am-15.00pm

sandwiches will be provided for those who register

Please feel free to come for the morning or afternoon or both sessions

Venue: Stratfield Brake, Frieze Way, Kidlington OX5 1UP

Please register for this event

email traceydesmond@carersoxfordshire.org.uk

Or telephone 01235 520463

See overleaf for more details

Programme

10.00am	Registration
10.30am	Introductions
10.40am	The Care Act 2014 & the amended Children Act 1989: overview
11.00am	The importance of evidence and 'onus' -
11.20am	The emerging role of the well-being principle
11.40am	Break
11.55am	Assessing 'adults in need' and adult carers
12.15pm	Determining eligibility: adults 'in need' and adult carers
12.40pm	Care Plans and support options (e.g. short breaks)
1.00pm	Lunch.
1.30pm	Challenging inadequate or reduced care packages.
2.00pm	Parent Carers: assessments and support (including transitional rights – i.e. when the disabled child becomes an adult).
2.25 pm	General discussion including questions on associated legal topics e.g. NHS Continuing Care and carers; carers of people supported under the Mental Health Act 1983;
3.00 pm	Feed-back and close.