

My dearest watercolourists

Today we are revisiting our delicious Monday treat and bake with watercolours. Unfortunately, something personal has come up this week and I will not be able to give as many details as I would like. This will be a brief tutorial but I will make it up to you.

We start with a drawing. We create a plate like so. We also add the little dough pleats.

Next up, we add the fruit: strawberries, blueberries, raspberries and red berries

Painting time:

First layer light beige covering the dough as well as the custard

We used pink (red and white) for the strawberries. Pure red for red berries, blue for blueberries and light lilac with pink for raspberries.

Add a drop of green here and there!

To add the delicious sight of the tart, add a little bit of brown to the pastry.

Finally, with the thinnest brush, dot the strawberry seeds using a stronger red.

Likewise, dotting purple to the raspberries will add the delicious final effect.

And here we have it!

I hope you enjoyed this and found it as delightful and delicious as I did!

Kindest

Ioana
