Poetry

Complete the lines to create your own poem:

Yesterday.....

Today....

Tomorrow....

Forever.....

Or

Create a list poem

Write down everything you can think of related to something you can see.
Write the colour, the texture, how you feel about it and how others might feel about it, what it looks like and what it doesn't look like.

Drawing Challenge

Draw something:

- That brings you luck
- Inspirational
- Green

It's up to you what you draw with these challenges, it can mean something different for you than it might be for someone else.

Use different forms if you have them paint, pencils, felt tips, chalk, crayons. These can be helpful to layer up and bring texture if they suit your drawing.

Maths quiz

What is square root of 81?

What does the roman numeral C represent?

What is the next prime number after 3?

What is $765 + 987 =$

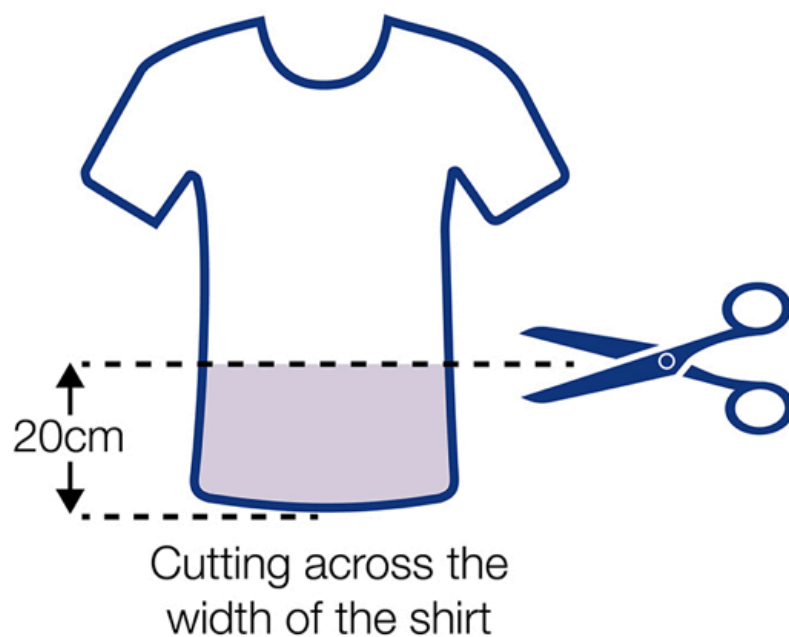

What is next in the sequence 27, 38, 50,

Making your own mask

You will need:

- an old T-shirt that you do not want anymore (ideally size small or extra small)
- scissors

Step 1: Cut a straight line across the width of the T-shirt (front and back) approximately 20cm from the bottom of the T-shirt.

Step 2: From a point 2cm below the top right-hand corner of the fabric, make a 15cm horizontal cut through both sides of the fabric that is parallel to the top of the rectangle.

Step 3: Cut down towards the bottom of the fabric until you reach approximately 2cm above the bottom edge. From here, make another 15cm cut that runs parallel to the bottom of the fabric to make a rectangle that can be discarded.

Cutting out a rectangle

Cutting the tie strings

Step 4: To make the ties, cut open the edge of the 2 long strips of fabric. Unfold the main piece of fabric and place over the mouth and the nose. The 4 strips act as ties to hold the cloth face covering in place and should be tied behind the head and around the neck.

Tying the strings behind the head,
and round the neck

Read: The invitation by Oriah Mountain Dreamer

“It doesn’t interest me what you do for a living. I want to know what you ache for, and if you dare to dream of meeting your heart’s longing. It doesn’t interest me how old you are. I want to know if you will risk looking like a fool for love, for your dream, for the adventure of being alive. It doesn’t interest me what planets are squaring your moon. I want to know if you have touched the centre of your own sorrow, if you have been opened by life’s betrayals or have become shrivelled and closed from fear of further pain! I want to know if you can sit with pain, mine or your own, without moving to hide it or fade it, or fix it.

I want to know if you can be with joy, mine or your own, if you can dance with wildness and let the ecstasy fill you to the tips of your fingers and toes without cautioning us to be careful, to be realistic, to remember the limitations of being human.

It doesn’t interest me if the story you are telling me is true. I want to know if you can disappoint another to be true to yourself; if you can bear the accusation of betrayal and not betray your own soul; if you can be faithless and therefore trustworthy.

I want to know if you can see beauty even when it’s not pretty, every day, and if you can source your own life from its presence. I want to know if you can live with failure, yours and mine, and still stand on the edge of the lake and shout to the silver of the full moon, “Yes!”

It doesn’t interest me to know where you live or how much money you have. I want to know if you can get up, after the night of grief and despair, weary and bruised to the bone, and do what needs to be done to feed the children.

It doesn’t interest me who you know or how you came to be here. I want to know if you will stand in the centre of the fire with me and not shrink back. It doesn’t interest me where or what or with whom you have studied. I want to know what sustains you, from the inside, when all else falls away.

I want to know if you can be alone with yourself and if you truly like the company you keep in the empty moments.”

Matching card game

Print the square cut and cut them out. Put them all face down on the table and see if you can match two of the same cards together.

Guess the film from the strapline

The happiest sound in all the world

Who you gonna call?

The true story of a real fake

On the air and unaware

You'll never go in the water again!

For anyone who ever wished upon a star

Still the fairest of them all

You'll believe a man can fly

You don't assign him to murder cases. You just turn him loose

Nothing on earth could come between them

His whole life was a million in one shot
