Sensory shakers

You will need a variety of hand-held sized boxes with lids and some rice, lentils, dried peas.

Fill the boxes with either of the ingredients, put the lid on and shake. Notice the different sounds that different ingredients make.

Put some music on and shake or twang along to the music.

How about creating paper chains?

You will need paper/card, scissors and glue.

1. Cut the paper/card into strips about 3 cm in width.
2. Get one piece of paper and glue the far ends together.
3. Thread the next piece of paper (of a different colour) through the original piece and glue the far ends together.
4. Thread the next piece of paper through the second circle and glue the far ends together.
5. Repeat until you are happy with the length.
6. Hang the end circles from your chosen points.

Stop and listen

1. Stop and listen.
2. Notice and name what sounds you can hear nearby.
3. Start with the closest or loudest sounds.
4. Gradually move your awareness of sounds outward, so you are focusing on what you can hear in the distance.

Put on some music and dance

Do you know the famous dances to the following songs:

The Twist- Chubby checker

Rock around the clock- Bill Haley and the comets

Macarena- Los del rio

Y.M.C.A- the village people

Time Warp- The Rocky Horror Picture Show

Shakespeare's sonnet XCVIII

From you have I been absent in the spring,
When proud pied April, dressed in all his trim,
Hath put a spirit of youth in every thing,
That heavy Saturn laughed and leapt with him.
Yet nor the lays of birds, nor the sweet smell
Of different flowers in odour and in hue,
Could make me any summer's story tell,
Or from their proud lap pluck them where they grew:
Nor did I wonder at the lily's white,
Nor praise the deep vermilion in the rose;
They were but sweet, but figures of delight,
Drawn after you, you pattern of all those.
Yet seemed it winter still, and you away,
As with your shadow I with these did play.
