Dementia Support Workers

Casual Contract

£11 per hour

We require experienced Dementia Support Workers to join our Metcalfe Dementia Support service as it escalates following Covid closedown.

You will be responsible for working within a small team supporting older people with a middle/moderate stage of a dementia diagnosis to participate in a wide range of activities. Experience of working in an environment with older people with dementia is essential.

A flexible approach to work is required. You must demonstrate empathy for older people and an understanding of issues that affect them.
