1. Introduction

- 1.1 Age UK Sutton (AUKS) recognises that providing a high standard of service delivery is essential. AUKS welcomes feedback from customers, whether it be positive or to tell us where we haven't met expectations. The proper handling of complaints is therefore one of Age UK Sutton's highest priorities. Staff members are trained to perceive complaints as a valuable source of information about services and processes and that handled in the correct manner can assist in continuous improvement.
- 1.2 To ensure that this policy meets the support needs across Age UK Sutton's diverse range of customers, it has been written in consideration of the Principles of Good Complaint Handling (Parliamentary And Health Service Ombudsman, 2008)
- 1.3 Complaints and the complaints process are managed by the Director of Development and Communication.

3. Compliments

- 3.1 We value and encourage all kinds of feedback. Anyone who has a relationship with Age UK Sutton can compliment a member of staff, a team or the organisation. Compliments are passed on to staff and their line manager, and are used to identify areas of good practice that Age UK Sutton can learn from and further develop.
- 3.2 Compliments can be submitted verbally to any member of staff who will record and share this or can be submitted through the Age UK Sutton website Online Contact Form, via email to info@ageuksutton.org.uk or in writing to the Age UK Sutton office.
- 3.3 Compliments are used to enable service development and as part of individual performance development. Employees receiving compliments will be recognised appropriately as part of the charity's reward and recognition activity.

5.2 Complainants making complaints relating to services commissioned by the Local or Health Authorities retain their right to complain to these bodies directly at any stage.

5.3 Age UK Sutton respects the rights of customers to complain to these statutory bodies and will work openly with partner agencies to resolve any legitimate concerns that customers raise.

6. Persistent or vexatious complaints

6.1 If a complainant has made unreasonable complaints in the past, we will not assume that their next complaint is unreasonable. Each case will be considered on its merits. All relevant correspondence will be evaluated to consider the circumstances, including:

- 6.1.2 whether there is a strong likelihood that complaints are being made to intentionally cause harassment, divert resources or to disrupt the proper workings of Age UK Sutton

- 6.1.4 whether the complainant displays vexatious behaviour

7. Confidentiality

7.1 Under the Data Protection Act 2018 and the Human Rights Act 1998, all personal and sensitive organisational information, however received, is treated as confidential, including:

- 7.1.1 anything of a personal nature that is not a matter of public record about a customer, member of staff, volunteer or trustee
- 7.1.2 sensitive organisational information.

7.2 We will ensure that the members of staff managing the complaint only involve other agencies and share information with the consent of the individual concerned, unless:
