

Need a little support for yourself or a family member?

Our services help people in later life living in Wigan Borough remain safe, secure, active and independent for as long as possible

Here at Age UK Wigan Borough, we know there's no "one size fits all" to ageing. Everyone's different – so however you or your family member want to experience later life, we can try to help.

Our services are matched to each person's individual needs, and they include:

- Information and advice to help you make informed decisions on issues like housing, health, care, employment, benefits, and debt management
- Support with staying independent and safe at home
- Activities and services to help you stay active and involved in the community, make new friends and live as fulfilling a life as possible.

Some services are free to access, while others incur a cost. Why not get in touch and have a chat about how Age UK Wigan Borough can help you, your friends and family?
