Monday 16th November 2026

Please don't forget your Travel Pass !!!

Today we will meet outside James Street Merseyrail Train Station for the beginning of a leisurely stroll along the banks of the River Mersey.
At the start we can take in views of the majestic Three Graces on the waterfront and then make our way up river towards St Michaels, the site of the International Garden Festival.
If the weather is kind, we can head further up river to Otterspool Promenade before making our way to our return station for our journey back to James Street.
