“Beeston Revisited”

Monday 19th October 2026

After our August walk, that took us round Beeston Castle, we revisit this part of Cheshire.

Canal, Castle views and a very pretty village along our walk today. We meet and begin at the church in Bunbury (CW6 9PH), making our way to the towpath of “The Shroppie” and head for Beeston Iron Lock.

Lanes and footpaths will lead us back to Bunbury where we can rest awhile in the village inn, The Dysart Arms (fingers crossed that it will be open!)

A picnic stop with views of Beeston Castle on this 6-mile walk.
