

White Top Walkers

A Couple More Hill Forts!

Monday 20th April 2026

This walk takes us to the largest Hill Fort (by area) in the wonderful Clwydian Range. The start maybe a little difficult to find but the walk, climb and views are well worth the effort. From the car park, we walk to Pennycloddiau and enjoy extensive views over North Wales and over to Wirral.

We might even be able to see “The Red Cranes”!

A sweep around Glyn Arthur to climb the summit of Moel Arthur with its prominent Trig Point.

The return to our cars is by way of the Hill Fort fortifications Picnic stop along the way but there is no pub, café or coffee shop at the finish!!

Meeting: Llangwyfan Forestry Car Park

(This is at the top of the lane that runs from Nannerch to Llangwyfan. Nannerch is off the A541 from Mold)

Start: 10:45am for 11:00am start

Distance: 7.75 Miles

(could be lots of muddy paths)
