“Treasure Island!”

An adventure to Hilbre Island (or a West Kirby Tour)
Monday 18th August 2025

The tide, it seems, is in our favour for a ramble to Hilbre Island. All being well we can explore the Little Eye, Little Hilbre and Hilbre itself

Setting off from the station in West Kirby, we will walk across the sands to this wonderful nature reserve. We may see seals and lots of sea birds.

There will be time to view the cliffs and enjoy the view back to the mainland of Wirral and North Wales

Picnic snack at the lighthouse beacon before retracing our steps to the Marine Lake. At the finish, a visit to the Age UK Wirral café for coffee and cake

Should the tide or weather be a problem, we have an alternative walk prepared that takes in many of the other attractions around West Kirby
