Key contributors to Creative and Cultural Activities for wellbeing in older people

Transport to get to activities is important for Wellbeing

Men tend to engage less, they may benefit from activities geared specifically for them.

Creative & Cultural activities include knitting & woodcrafts

People in the bottom 20% of wellbeing rely on their public library

It's important for people to have friends to do activities with