

For Later Life Conference: A Later Life worth Living

5 September 2018, Church House Conference Centre, Westminster

Time
10:00-10:30	Registration and exhibition
10:30	Opening address - Caroline Dinenage, Minister of State at the Department of Health and Social Care
10:50-11:35	Discussion on Government's green paper on care and support for older people
11:35-12:00	Refreshments and exhibition
12:00-12:50	Parallel sessions	Building financial resilience	Can technology revolutionise care?	Families - should they do more?
		Lucy Malenczuk, Age UK  Melinda Riley, Pension Advisory Service  Tom McPhail, Hargreaves Lansdown	Chaired by Pam Creaven, Services Director, Age UK  Dr Lis Boulton, Manchester University & Chair, Age UK Calderdale and Kirklees  Prof Jeremy Myerson, Helen Hamlyn Centre for Inclusive Design Royal College of Art  Ed Russell, WCS Care	Chaired by Caroline Abrahams, Charity Director, Age UK  Edward Davies, Centre for Social Justice  Sarah Jackson, Working Families  James Kirkup, Social Market Foundation
12:50-14:00	Lunch and exhibition
14:00	Afternoon plenary:	Is the system broken? Reality and practice across the health and care system
		Chaired by Caroline Abrahams, Charity Director, Age UK Dr Sharmeen Hasan, Consultant Geriatrician, King's College Hospital Ann Ford, CQC Karen Middleton, CEO, Chartered Society of Physiotherapists Martin Green, CEO, Age UK South Gloucestershire

14:35-15:10	Debate:	Can the voluntary sector pick up the pieces? Chaired by Steph Harland, Chief Executive, Age UK
		Dan Corry CEO, NPC Vicky Browning, CEO, ACEVO Penny Thewlis, CEO Age UK Oxfordshire
15:10-15:30	Refreshments and exhibition
15:30-16:30	Parallel sessions	What's fair for older people – how will we pay for care?  Chaired by Jane Vass, Director of Policy and Research, Age UK	Care in a changing world  Chaired by Steph Harland, Chief Executive, Age UK	Workforce challenges in health and social care  Chaired by Pam Creaven, Services Director, Age UK
		Simon Bottery, The King's Fund  Yvonne Braun, ABI  Jim Boyd, Equity Release Council	Ramses Underhill-Smith, Alternative Care Services  Jim Glennon, Opening Doors  Yasmin Aktar, Muslim Council of Britain	Michelle Seddon, Age UK Lincoln  Jane Ashcroft, Anchor Trust  Further speaker TBC
16:30	Conference ends

Click here to book your place

Twitter @age_uk
#ForLaterLife